The case of The People vs. John Colwell, charged with casting an illegal vote in the third ward on Tuesday last, came up for examination before Justice Lowry. The point made in the complaint against Colwell was that he was not of age and therefore had no right to vote. The mother of the accused arrived in Decatur this morning from Champaign with the Colwell family bible, in which was entered the date of the prisoner's birth. The record showed that John was past 21 and a legal voter. The prisoner was discharged, as was also Robert Winston, who was also arrested on Tuesday for perjury. The arrests have aroused some bad feeling among the friends of the accused.

The fire.
An old smoke-house at the rear of the W. T. Stamper residence lot, used as a storage room, was discovered to be on fire last evening soon after 8 o'clock, and the alarm was sounded which brought the department to the scene, but owing to hydrants breaking the flames could not be extinguished, and the building and its contents were totally destroyed involving a loss of about $200. It is believed the building was not on fire. Efforts will be made to discover the incendiary. The firemen did noble work in protecting adjacent property.

PERSONAL MENTION.

O. E. Curtis is in Chicago on business.
F. B. Caldwell left for Lafayette yesterday.

Rev. W. H. Musgrave, of Springfield, was in the city yesterday.

Major V. Warner, of Clinton, was a guest at the St. Nicholas last night.

James W. Haworth, Esq., arrived home from Peoria yesterday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Andrews, Dr. Mc-Lean and John Crocker, all of Marion, were in the city last evening.

Dr. Walston is in Marion to-day holding a professional consultation with Doctor Phillips of that town.

Rev. W. W. Woodson, of Blue Mound, and Rev. A. Flower, of Paris, both Christian preachers, heard the Cook lecture last night.

Mr. Holbrook, of Ohio, will meet the Decatur Club at the rooms to-morrow night. He comes representing a Normal School, of which the Republican speaks at some length several months ago.

Harry Caldwell got home from Peoria yesterday. He had the honor of being the first to notify Gen. Oglesby of his nomination, by the convention for governor.

M. Einstein, late of Minneapolis, is in the city again. He returns to Decatur with a view of opening a fashion emporium, such as no one acted previous to his departure. Mrs. Einstein is at Lou-ville at present visiting her daughter.

Senator George Hunt, of Paris, Edgar county, the Republican nominee for attorney general, passed through Decatur yesterday en route from Peoria to Paris. He was feeling good all over. He was accompanied to this city by James W. Haworth, Representative Crocker, and others.

Secretary D. L. Temple received Rev.
Joseph Cook at the depot last evening, and both were driven to the New Deming in a carriage. Rev. Cook spent about an hour at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The gentleman became momentarily red-hot when some one remarked that he hoped the lecture would be of a different character than that delivered by Beecher, not descriptive. Cook is something of an egotist, and does not allow any one to even intimate that he will ever speak to any subject that will not prove entirely and wholly acceptable. In replying to the remark of the local Y. M. C. A. member he gave the Decaturite to understand in a few curt words by intimating, at least, that Cook is a greater man than either Beecher, Talmage, or any other notable.

Gone Wrong.
Lizzie and Ida Morrison, aged respectively 16 and 18 years, were brought before Justice Curtis this forenoon by Marshal Mason, charged with lewd and boisterous conduct. They were fined $5 and costs each. The girls are wild. They ought to be taken in charge and placed in some reformatory school.

Bids Wanted.
In to-day's issue C. M. Durfee, city clerk, advertises for sealed bids for the improvement of the old square and North Main street by paving with brick, and for bids for the construction of a lot of brick walks recently ordered by the city council. Bids will be received up to May 3d.
See notice in another column.

W. G. COCHRAN, assignee of the broken bank at Lovington, has just published a statement of the liabilities of S. H. Morrell, the president of the concern. They foot up $76,326.65. The assignee fails to state the amount of the assets and whether or not the creditors will receive 5 or 100 cents on the dollar.

PROF. STARK gave a Punch and Judy show and meretricious performance at the opera house yesterday afternoon which was well patronized by the school children. Each child got a present after the performance. They embraced roller skates, big dolls, hoops and other valuable gifts.

Rev. W. Lowell, of Martineville, Illinois, is holding revival services at the Bethel this week and over the Sabbath.
Services to-morrow night, Sunday morning and Sunday evening at six o'clock.
The 7:30 services will be omitted owing to the Y. M. C. A. banquet at the tabernacle. Mr. Lowell is a very successful revivalist. Go and hear him.

Mr. STAMPER states that his old smokehouse must have been set on fire last night. There had been no fire about the building for months, and that it contained no stoves. His theory is that some mischievous person fired the building.

THIS evening there will be a test of Lincoln coal at the Electric Light Works against the Mt. Olive, which occurred last evening. Next week they will test Decatur and other coal.

PROF. OLOF BULL will be the director of the new opera orchestra at the opera house to-night. Good music may be expected.

The case of perjury against Benjamin Bristow was dismissed in Justice Lowry's court yesterday evening, the discharge of Stearns knocking the bottom out of the case.

JOSEPH COOK said last night: "I am a protectionist until we can undersell Great Britain, and then I will be for free trade."

THE city council will meet to-night to convey the vote cast on Tuesday. The clerk will notify the aldermen of their election, and they will have 10 days in which to qualify.

THE COOK LECTURE.

The Scholarly Bostonian Appears Before a Large Audience—All Pleased.

The series of entertainments given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, closed last night at the opera house with a masterly lecture by the eminent scholar, the Rev. Joseph Cook, of Boston, who took for his subject the "Seven Modern Wonders of the World." The audience was one of the largest of the Lecture Course, and fairly represented the intelligent and cultured people of Decatur and neighboring towns.
The distinguished lecturer, who is everywhere recognized as one of the advanced thinkers of the age, a man of gigantic intellect and a close student, was introduced by Mr. Geo. E. Morehouse who on behalf of the association thanked the public for their liberal patronage of the course of entertainments.

Rev. Cook, who is a native of New York and is 46 years of age, has a massive head, and very much resembles Dr. W. R.
Goodwin in appearance, commenced speaking at 8:15 o'clock and did not close until 10:50, consuming two hours and 35 minutes. In the limited space of these columns no synopsis of the masterly effort which would do it and the lecturer justice can be given. There was so much solid meat in it, that it would have been better perhaps had the subject been given in sections on different evenings so that the audience might have time to properly digest the far-reaching thoughts and views expressed. The lecturer demonstrated clearly that he is a close observer of men and things, and that he is a student of history and science and theology, who is well able to discuss mighty questions with the deepest thinkers without fear of defeat on any rostrum.

In laying the foundation of his lecture he spoke of the speed of inter-communication between nations, and cited the fact that in this day and age a circuit of the world can be made by the traveler in 90 days; further, that by means of the telegraph messages can be sent around the earth six times an hour. He also declared that even now Chicago and Calcutta are commercial rivals, and therefore there is need of a broader and deeper sympathy existing between all nations. He gave the audience the full benefit of his personal observations made on the occasion of his tour of the world, which he supplemented by adding deductions that were logical and complete. In order, he stated the "Seven Modern Wonders of the World" to be those of a moral character.
There are: "Self-Reformation of the nations," "The Parallel Advance of Education and Free Government," "International Alliance or Arbitration between nations," "Triumph of Christianity in this Day and Century," "Current Fulfillment of Biblical Prophecy," "Establishment of Scientific Supernaturalism," and the "Triumph of Physical Science over Modern Unbelief." These different topics were amplified and facts and new thoughts were piled up mountain high with such rapidity and ease that the hearer was compelled to listen with fixed attention to take in the full force of the masterly and well arranged address.

He dwelt largely on the advance of Protestantism in foreign lands, chiefly in Japan and Germany, and he dealt sledgehammer blows at the so-called "liberal thinkers" of the country, of whom Lugerell is a type. He referred at some length on municipal misrule and of the dangers which threaten the larger towns because of the corruption that exists. His remedy is the enforcement of the municipal laws.
Rotate out of office everywhere all who sweat to enforce the laws and don't; and he would have all those who don't go to school lose their right to vote when they become of age. He digressed to speak of the temperance question, and declared that the liquor question will never be settled until it is taken out of politics entirely. "I am in favor of the local option law," said he. "It is just and right; and further, I would have the traffic blotted out of a county and the state by the adoption of a prohibitory amendment, if the people so decide; and further, I am in favor of a National prohibitory law. I think the ladies who pay taxes ought to have the right to vote on educational and temperance questions, for I believe that they would vote right and help to wipe out all evils that exist in the cities." This sentiment was warmly applauded.

Speaking of National leaders Rev. Cook mentioned the names of Blaine and Landon, when his hearers interrupted further remarks by an outburst of applause which continued for some seconds. Rev. Cook expressed himself as in favor of Edmunds as best choice, but if he would not get Edmunds he would take Blaine. More applause.

The concluding portions of the splendid lecture was a summing up of the different topics discussed, to show that the world and its people are progressive, both in science and religion. The permanent impression was specially impressive and grandly sublime.

ANOTHER REPORT.

It falls to the lot of few men to be the discoverers of primary truth, and seldom do they possess sufficient independence and power of intellect to burst through the crust of the orthodox conception of it without being so dazzled by its infinity that they lose and occupy themselves with its workings and forget its Great Worker. The lecture of "The Seven Modern Wonders of the World" bristled with controlling facts from which unanswerable deductions were made that gave convincing proof that Mr. Cook is a molder of advanced thought and a leader of civil and moral progress. His scientific investigations and historic researches have so broadened his conceptions that he is not fettered by dogmas nor confined to theories of his own. That Mr. Cook has fully and fairly explored the known avenues of nature and science, and that he is familiar with the tenets of the leading advocates, cannot be denied. His conclusions carry such great convictions of their truth to the impartial mind that it is compelled to accept them. The effect of this lecture upon political and moral questions of the day, was powerful and salutary.

The Shiloh Relics.

The following is a list of the interesting relics found on the Shiloh battlefield, April 6th and 7th, 22 years after the battle, by Comrade and Mrs. C. H. Kepley and son. They are on exhibition at the W. R. C. fair at the tabernacle, and embrace the following articles: A Rebel 12-pound shell, unexploded; it is ten inches long; a solid 6-pound shot; an old musket with bayonet attached; Rebel and Union cartridge boxes and contents, bomb shells, pieces of rubber blankets, horse shoes, grape shot, belt plates, Rebel epaulettes, camp kettle, tin cups, bullets of different sizes, pieces of foundation of old Shiloh church, pine knot used for torchlight, and many other articles that must be seen to be appreciated. One of the finest relics, so pronounced by the excursionists, is a hitch-ring cut out of a white oak tree on the 7th of April where Gen. Halburn had his headquarters on Sunday, the 6th of April, 1862. The wood has grown entirely three-fourths over the ring; also another of equal interest is a leather hitch strap that was cut and left when General Prentiss (Union) was surrounded and compelled to surrender on Sunday, April 6, 1862. This strap with the green oak wood and bark grown over it three inches was found and cut out on the 7th of April.
The hatchet broken by Comrade Kepley in cutting the hitch-ring out is on exhibition with it. These relics have lain 22 years on the Shiloh battlefield. A knife got at the fall of Ft. Donelson that belonged to one of the Mississippi Tigers (Rebel), also an old flint-lock pistol are shown by A. J. Miller; also a five-dollar Rebel note brought from Andersonville when Miller was released from the prison; a Rebel paper published during the siege of Vicksburg and sent to Mrs. Gladwell by her son; also the Transfer, published in Jacksonport, Ark., a Union paper, dated May 9, 1862. All of these things must be seen to be appreciated.

1500 Invitations.

The invitation committee for the Alumni May festival at the tabernacle will meet on Monday and send out 1500 invitations to Decatur people to attend the party May 1st. It will be a novel affair throughout. There will be several representations of lively interest—Tennyson's Dream of Faith, sketches from Whittier's poems, Uncle Tom's Cabin, Mother Goose and "Squeer's School." The latter will be very queer. Albert Summers will be one of the alumni in charge of this booth.

To the Members of the Decatur Club.
You are hereby requested to assemble at the Club Rooms to-morrow, Saturday, evening at seven and a half o'clock, to meet Mr. Holbrook, of Lebanon, Ohio, who proposes establishing a Normal School in Illinois, after the model of one which has been successfully conducted by himself and others for many years in Ohio, and to that end desires to consult with us as to locating in Decatur. There should be a good attendance.

C. A. EWING, Pres. D. C.
April 18, 1884—d2

They Must Go.
It has been determined that the number of postal clerks in the railway service will soon be reduced heavily, owing to the inadequacy of the appropriation made by congress to meet the expenses of the present service. Three hundred clerks or over will be cut out from all divisions. The clerks showing the poorest record are the ones that will be dispensed with. The result of the reduction will be injurious, as the mail is at present frequently too large for the force employed.
The mail in transit is growing daily, and this reduction in the number of clerks will certainly prove a crippling move to the service.

"Fetters" To-night.
The Rosa Elyngne dramatic company will appear at the opera house this evening and present the emotional drama, "Fetters," which is everywhere received with favor. Don't miss seeing this company and play. Admission, 50 and 75 cents. Reserved seats, $1.00.

The Benefit Festival.
The members of the Woman's Relief Corps of the Decatur G. A. R. are in charge of the benefit fair and festival which began at the tabernacle last night with a very large attendance. The large room lit by electric light and decorated with beautiful booths, inviting refreshment tables, and a liberal display of the stars and stripes, was a scene of general sociability. Major Steele sold the tickets at the door, and C. W. Whitsit received them. Mrs. F. M. Cox, the president of the enterprise, and other ladies gave all a hearty welcome. The various tables are in charge of the following ladies: Fancy booth—Misses Belle Steele, Mabel Durfee, Annie Cox, Mand Trowbridge and Jessie Steele. Ice cream booth—Mrs. J.
King, Mrs. Nathan Purper, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Edwards, and Misses Maggie Crissey, Mattie Givler and Cassie Leforge. Flower booth—Mrs. E. D. Bartholomew, Mrs. Herb W. Bartholomew and Misses Jessie Stevens, Ada Lovor and Daisy Durfee. Cigar booth—Mrs. May-pur, Mrs. D. M. Berlin, Mrs. Paul Smith and Misses Ada Waugh and Mary Lowry. Supper table—Mrs. S. T. Trowbridge, Mrs. East, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Pitzer and Mrs. Carter. Dinner table—Mrs. J. M.
Bjelle, Mrs. George R. Steele, Mrs. J. Bell, Mrs. George P. Nichols, Mrs. R. P. Lytle, Mrs. H. Mahanah, Mrs. George Durfee, Mrs. Longmuhling, Mrs. Skelly, Mrs. T.
Wielholtz, Mrs. Gargan, Mrs. Hollman, Mrs. Burch, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. May-pur, Mrs. C. H. Kepley and Misses Mary Spencer and Lulu Jones. Arbol de Blanquillo—Mrs. A. H. Diehl, Mrs. Stafford and Misses Laura Mahanah and Ella Star-ford. Refreshment booth—Misses Mattie Carrington and Louise Lamm.

The festival will close to-night. A public dinner was served to-day. The baby show this afternoon is one of the chief features of the affair. Go to the tab-
